

Regional Division Head - Pain Medicine

Roles & Responsibilities of the Regional Division Head

The responsibilities of Regional Division Head shall include (but may not be limited to):

- Develop annual operating objectives for the Regional Division of Pain Medicine
- Function as the channel of communication to and from the Regional Division to keep members of the Regional Division informed regarding Division objectives, policies and general activities
- Develop, with the members of the Regional Division, standards of clinical practice for the Regional Division, recommending those standards to the Regional Department and ensuring that the Regional Division members work within established standards
- Encourage and facilitate programs for the continuing medical education of Regional Department members are established (Journal Club, M&M Rounds, Grand Rounds)
- Arrange and chair Regional Division meetings as required
- Work with the Universities to ensure that education programs and research activities are being sufficiently promoted and supported
- Promoting health and wellness among members
- Encourage a healthy and respectful workplace
- Investigate and document complaints regarding care provided by Members within the Regional Division under the direction of the relevant Regional Department Heads or Program or Regional Medical Directors
- Review with the Regional Division and the Regional Department Head and /or Program Medical Director, the manpower requirements of the Regional Division
- Contribute to the search and selection of applicants for vacancies in the Regional Division
- Establish a quality assurance/quality improvement structure and program for the Regional Department, which carries out the functions of review, evaluation and analysis of the quality of Medical Care and utilization of Fraser Health Resources.
- Co-Chair the Fraser Health Regional Pain Strategy Steering Committee
- Work collaboratively with the Clinical Lead, Pain Medicine, to develop and implement pain services throughout FH
- Provide expert opinion and advice as may be requested from time to time by the Department Head in the field of pain medicine. This may include requests to sit on ad hoc committees or make presentations to the university, health authority, College of Physicians of BC, Doctors of BC or Ministry of Health if these activities are requested
- Attend Division of Family Practice, Regional and Local Department meetings as they relate to the promotion of Pain Medicine
- Assist with the privileging process for physicians whom wish to offer interventional pain services within FH facilities

View the detailed job description here.

Compensation: Annual stipend of $27,000 based on 0.16 FTE presence in the role or 6.0 hours per week

Qualifications: FRCPC with formal Chronic Pain Fellowship; minimum 3 years experience practicing chronic pain

Please forward applications or letters of interest with a CV to:

Fatima Beatty, Client Partner, Physician Recruitment - Fatima.beatty@fraserhealth.ca